Bad News for Outlaws: The Remarkable Life of Bass Reeves, Deputy U.S. Marshal (BR019015)

Nelson, Vaunda Micheaux.

Biography of African American Bass Reeves (1838-1910), a hero of the Old West. Discusses Reeves's escape from life as a slave in Texas, his qualifications for being a deputy marshal, and some of his exploits with desperadoes. For grades 2-4. Coretta Scott King Award. 2009.

Melonhead (BR018329)

Adam Melon, Melonhead to his friends, has a talent for landing in trouble. But right now he and his friend Sam are busy dreaming up inventions to win a science contest. For grades 2-4.

John, Paul, George, and Ben (BR017028)

Once there were four lads...John [Hancock], Paul [Revere], George [Washington], and Ben [Franklin]. Oh yes, there was also Tom [Jefferson], but he was annoyingly independent and hardly ever around. These lads were always getting into trouble for one reason or another. In other words, they took a few...liberties. And to be honest, they were not always appreciated. This is the story of five little lads before they became five really big Founding Fathers. For grades 2-4.

Just Grace (BR017415)

The third-grader Grace Stewart gets stuck with the name "Just Grace" when she tries to distinguish herself from the three other Graces in her class. Grace is plenty different, though. She has a "teeny-tiny superpower," for instance—she can tell if someone is unhappy and often tries to fix it. When she concocts an elaborate scheme to help her neighbor Mrs. Luther feel less lonely, however, her good intentions backfire rather dramatically. For grades 2-4.
